Carlton House SW1: Morning Caruthers, glad to see you back. Good leave"
Yes thank you Henry.Sorry about my 'queer turn' last week.
Well, it was a mighty anxious time for us all, you know. But now to buisness....
Yes, you'd better bring me up to date.Whats new?
Seen the report from A-H? seems the epidemic is killing troops off by the thousands.Overcrowded barracks, you know - they have to sleep standing up in the ranks, I'd heard.And intelligence says the Germans are likely to have a go at Belgium, so were planning to give them the slip.Thats and the Gordon Highlanders to Oslo should keep em pretty busy.
DARLIST CORNWALL: I recon your intelligence has had too much of the Gordons....gin.

TABLETOP:

I'll finish that game just between the players concerned. Which to be honest is only the last move as all the allied troops are now in retreat due to a army morale test ...which they failed... badly.
