Dear Rod,

Enclosed are the Colonia -II (by Hyatt) maps and rules and abbreviations. They are in the paper clip.

These are xeroxes of my copies. Do not return them.

I also enclose Xeroxes of my redrawings of problem areas and of western Europe. These are for Colonia-III (not II) except that I prepared them for my "Map-III, 15-country, variant", so the circled H's are home centers for my variant. However, it uses the same 139 SC that Colonia-III has.

My game uses the Colonia-III map but the home countries are different. It has been given "iz" as game designator and Miller number of 1979 Hiz. I'm running it by typed copy.

This game has grouped the 15-countries into 5 groups of 3 each as it has only 5 players, though it can also be played with 15.

It uses the following rules of Colonia III: #1, #3, #4, and #8. It is similar to Diplomacy rather than to Colonia.

It is of fixed length (beginning in spring 1701). It was 8 years, but the players wished it to be extended to 12 years.

The grouping of countries is:

- Group A: Indo-China, Quebec, and Ghana
- Group B: Japan, Brazil, and Bulgaria
- Group C: Cape Colony, Mexico, and Franks
- Group D: Borneo, Vikings, and Ethiopia
- Group E: Peru, Spain, and Persia

The beginning (<sup>UNITS</sup>positions) and home centers are on the next sheet.

I propose the following starting changes if another game of it is played:

- Move Peru's army from AGT to PRU
- Move Peru's Fleet from PRU to TAH
- Move Borneo's Fleet from Nwz to CEY

Best,

Robert Stimmel
