This game will only end when one player reaches the required total or if all the remaining players agree to a termination, Austria is against any sort of draw until the position becomes deadlocked (that's the last I heard) and so, quite rightly the game will go on till a result is obvious.

SHEET 5

N.G.C. 107v Third Age II

(C)

I regret to say that there was an error in the last game report and that the result stated was incorrect.

The Gondor unit wearing the Ring was only a 3A (except against Mordor) and therefore his move to Bar did not succeed since the unit standing in Bar had support from two Umbar units.

The result is therefore altered to read;

1st Umbar

2nd Rhovanion

3rd Gondor

Apologies to all concerned.

Atlantis: The agreed end to the game was not agreed upon and therefore it all carries on. However, there is a proposal that it be terminated in a four-way draw between all existing players in Aut. 12. A theoretical autumn move can be played if all parties agree to this next deadline - please let me know.
